WEDDINGS.-Quite a brilliant wedding took place at the Church of the Epiphany, on G street, last evening. The parties were Mr. William B Read, and Miss Alice Dixon, assisted by Messrs. Read, brother of the groom, Elward Creey, and J. A. Dapray, as groomsmen, and Miss Flora Wells, daughter of ex Governor Wells, of Virginia; Miss Claudia Dixon, sis ter of the bride, and Miss Beal, as bridesmaids. Six o'clock was the time set for the ceremony, and long before that hour the church was filled with a large assemblage of relations and triends. The Rev. Mr. Harris officiated. The bride, a bandsome brunette, was attired in a dress of white French muslin, with small flounces, en train, illusion veil, and hair ornamented with orange blossoms. The bridesmaids appeared in white Swiss dresses, looped up with natural flowers. After the ceremony a recepmother, prior to the departure of the happy family. couple for the East.

Mr. George Delaware Deshields, of the Imperial House of this city, was married last week to Miss Jennie A. Hazleton, at the residence of her uncle, Mr. Isaac Alexander, on G street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Parker, after which the happy couple received the kind congratulations of those present, among whom were Mrs. Dr. Entwisle, Mrs. Forster, Mrs. Gill. Miss Odessa Pierce, Mr. G. Hall and Mr. Fossett, of Alexandria; Mr. Kerr, and George and Harry Sykes, of the Imperial. After partaking of the good things prepared for the occasion, the happy couple started north on a short wedding tour .- Wash. Chronicle.

Mrs. Read and Mr. Deshields were both formerly residents of this city.

THE FISHERY. - Owing to the dry Spring, the water in the Potomac is brackish at a higher point than almost ever before known at this time of the year, and the consequence is that the river is full of salt water fish, to the detriment of the herring and shad fishery. Reports from some of the landings represent that the seines in many instances are so full of alewives, or bug fish-so called from having a bug in their mouths at this season-that they cannot be landed; and most all the cargoes that reach here are heavily adulterated with the same sort of fish.

A. & W. R. R.-The following is a minute of yesterday's proceedings of the Supreme Court of the U. S., mention of which was made among the telegrams in the Gazette of that date: Jas. S. In the Scnate, to day, the bill to establish a collection district at Tampa, Fia., with a collecclusion those assembled partook of a cold lunch | tor at $1 000 per annum, was reported by the Committee on Commerce and laid over until

The Senate then took up the bill for the re-Board of Directors of the O., A. & M. R. | lief of Joseph Segar, of Va., directing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to him fifteen thousand dollars, due for the use and occupation of his farm in Elizabeth City County, by the Federal army during the late war.

Mr. Buckingham, of Conn., and Mr. Morrill, of Vt., explained that on a former occasion when this bill was up they had rated the rental value of this property two low.

Mr. Boarman explained the provisions of the bill, saying that Segar's farm of four hundred acres, near Fortress Monroe, had been seized 69; yellow Southern 67; Western nominal; no by the United States in April 1861, and held as a military depot until 1867, for which he had received no compensation.
